

Lord I have cried

Saints Cyrus & John

Tone 4

Kievan

O ye ath - letes most val - or - ous,

The first line of the hymn is written in a two-staff system (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is primarily in the treble staff, with the bass staff providing a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are: "O ye ath - letes most val - or - ous,".

ye phy - si - cians sent forth by God,

The second line of the hymn continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are: "ye phy - si - cians sent forth by God,".

bless-ed John and Cy - rus of great and no - ble fame, since ye

The third line of the hymn continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are: "bless-ed John and Cy - rus of great and no - ble fame, since ye".

destroyed all the godless pride of ty - rants and en - e - mies,

The fourth line of the hymn concludes the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are: "destroyed all the godless pride of ty - rants and en - e - mies,".

smite and whol - ly do a - way

6

the unwise wand'rings of my mind Tyr - an - niz - ing me;

7

heal my soul's pain and pas - - - sions, //

8

and deliver me from fu - ture con - dem - na - tion,

9

entreating Christ our De - liv - - - er - er.

10

Quickly res - cue me from the flood

11

of af - flic - tions op - pres - sing me,

12

and the storm of suff - 'rings which com - eth o - ver me;

13

lighten the pains of my body, O ye Un - mer - cen - a - ry Saints, and the griefs and ev - 'ry woe

15

that approacheth my soul vis - i - bly and in - vis - i - bly,

16

that with faith and with longing I may bless_ you, //

17

the most hal - lowed pair of ath - letes

18

that boldly strove for the Trin - i - ty.

19

Since ye both truly have become fairest temples of_ God most High,

20

ye have made your temple a spring of won-drous cures;

21

as I flee thith - er for ref - uge; do ye free

me from all disease and ev - 'ry in - firm - i - ty,

23

and, O Cyrus and John, grant peace to my hap - less soul;

24

which, O Saints, hath been trou - bled//

25

with the enemy's des - pite - ful - ness and out - rage,

and is enthralled un - to wick - - - ed - ness.

Tone 8

Obikhod

27

Cyrus and John, the two wonderworkers and mar - tyrs,

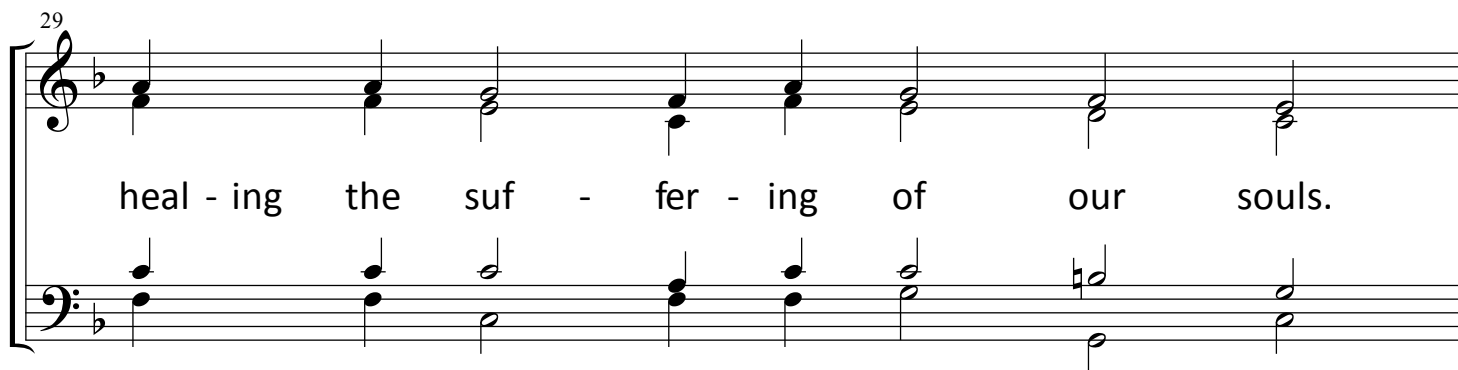

have dawned up - on us this day,

28

have dawned up - on us this day,

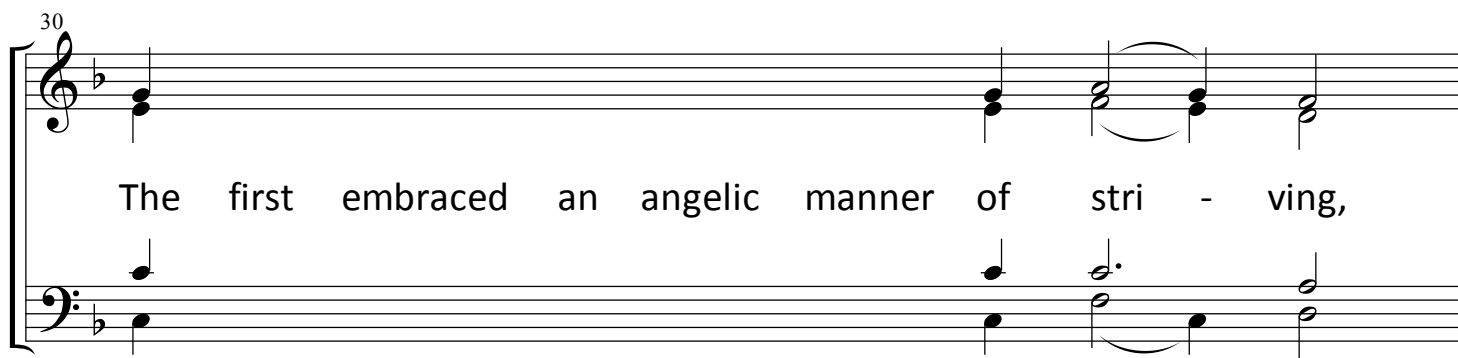

have dawned up - on us this day,

29

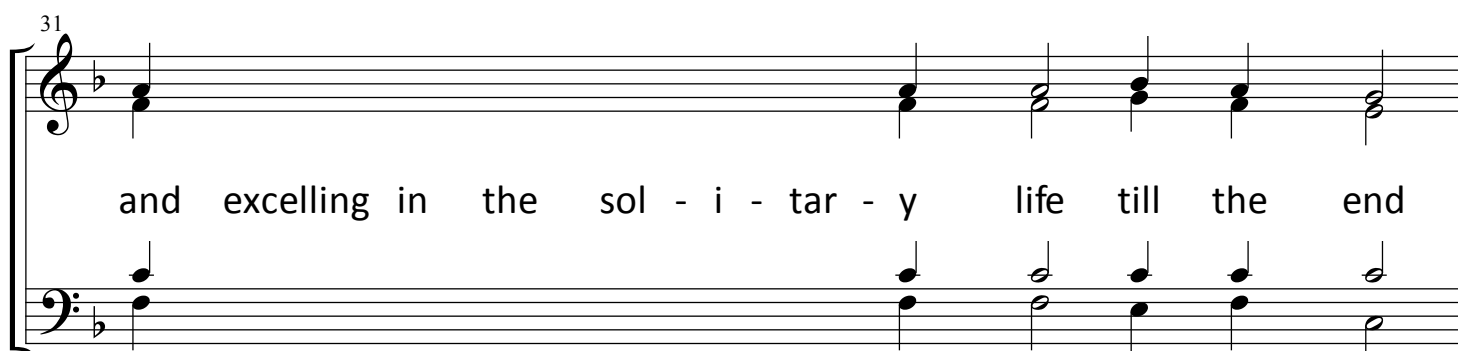

heal - ing the suf - fer - ing of our souls.

30

The first embraced an angelic manner of stri - ving,

31

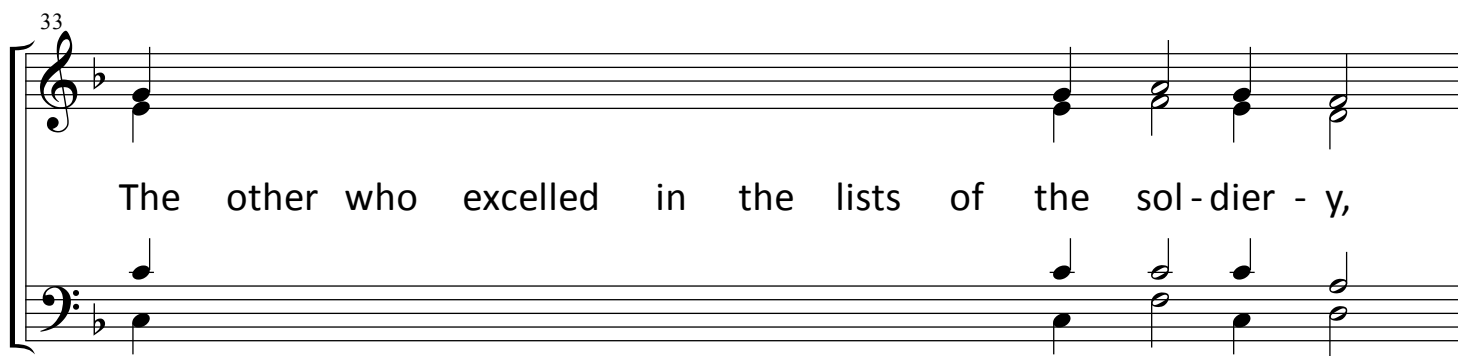

and excelling in the sol - i - tar - y life till the end he hath been united to Christ through the blood of mar - tyr - dom.

32

33

The other who excelled in the lists of the sol - dier - y,

34

hath been numbered with the armies of Hea - - - ven.

35

Hence, they be - stow heal - - - - ings

36

upon them that keep their mem - or - y with faith,/'

37

and they pray for our souls.

Tone 2

Obikhod

38

Come today, O company of the faith - - - ful,

39

let us crown with hymns Cy - rus and John,

40

those hus - - - band - man of grace

41

and most bounteous givers of gifts to them that ask.

42

For in many ways they have been shown un - to all

43

to be most il - lus - tri - ous phy - si - cians; //

44

and they pray in be - half of our souls.
